

LAND USE AND SOCIETY: GEOGRAPHY, LAW, AND PUBLIC POLICY
(3rd Edition)

By Rutherford H. Platt

Table of Contents (Complete)

Acknowledgments

Introduction: Geography, Law, and Landscape: Reflections From 30,000 Feet

Part I: Preliminaries: Land, Geography, and Law

Chap. 1 Land Use and Society: Fundamentals and Issues

The Meanings of Land

How is Land Used in the United States?

(Box: The Federal Lands: Policies in Conflict)

Cropland

Forestland

Grasslands

Recreation Land

Wetlands and Floodplains

Urban Land

What Are Cities?

(Box: Policy Issues Related to Urban and Rural Land Use)

Chap. 2 Shaping the Human Landscape: The Interaction of Geography and Law

The Geographical Landscape

Spatial Organization

Scale

Function

Externalities

The Legal Landscape

A Short Digression: The Legal Process

Law and Urban Form

The Land Use and Society Model

Part II: From Feudalism to Federalism: The Social Organization of Land Use

Chap. 3 Historical Roots of American Land Use Institutions

The Feudal Commons: Sustainability in the Dark Ages

Inventing Local Government

(Box: Rebuilding London after the Great Fire)

Nineteenth Century Urban Squalor and Public Response

Regulation: From Sanitary Reform to Urban Planning

Redevelopment: A Century of Municipal Improvements

Haussman's Paris

Urban Parks in America: The Olmsted Legacy
Relocation: The Ideal Communities Movement

Chap. 4 Building a Metropolitan Nation: 1900-1940

American Cities circa 1900

The Progressive Decades: 1900-1930s

The City Beautiful Movement

The Settlement House Movement

Public Health And Safety Regulations

City and Regional Planning

The 1930s: Public Works and Grand Visions

Chap. 5 The Polarized Metropolis: 1945-2010

Public Housing and Urban Renewal

Suburban Sprawl

The Civil Rights Movement

The Environmental Movement

Tracking Metropolitan America: 1950-2010

Toward a More Humane Metropolis

Part III: Discordant Voices: Property Rights versus the Public Interest

Chap. 6 Property Rights: The Owner as Planner

The Nature of Real Property

The “Red and Green Sticks” of Property Ownership

Types of Owners and Legal Interests

Acquisition and Disposition of Real Property

Pinpointing the Land: Legal Boundary Descriptions

Metes and Bounds

Federal Land Survey (and box)

Subdivision Plats

Chap. 7 The Patchwork of Local Governments

Origins and Diffusion of Local Governments

Local Government Powers and Functions

Municipalities

Counties

Special Districts and Regional Authorities

Revenue and Debt

Chap. 8 Zoning, Regionalism, Smart Growth

Euclidean Zoning

Zoning Administration

Zoning Flexibility and Evolution

Critiques of Zoning

Subdivision Regulation

Subdivision Exactions and Impact Fees
Private Deed Restrictions
Regionalism and Partnerships
Smart Growth and New Urbanism

Chap. 9 Land Use and the Courts

The Basic Constitutional Provisions
(Box: A Note on Legal Citations)
The Takings Issue: The Mahon Decision
Zoning: The Euclid Decision
The Takings Issue Revisited
Urban Renewal: Berman and Kelo
Public Housing: The Gautreaux Case
Opening the Suburbs: The Mount Laurel Case

Chap. 10 Congress and the Metropolitan Environment

(Box: Selected Federal Environmental Laws since 1970)
The National Environmental Policy Act
Wetlands Management
The Safe Drinking Water Act and Watershed Management
Coastal Zone Management
The National Flood Insurance Program
Endangered Species: Habitat Conservation Plans
Hazardous Waste Management
Americans With Disabilities (ADA)
Urban Parks, Greenways, and Trails

Epilogue: Towards More Humane Urbanism

(End Matter)